|---|---|--|
| Alliance to Protect Our People and Places We Live (APPPL) | Kay Reibold (Policy Advocate) | Repeated interactions with Gov. Office emphasizing their work with Nash County residents |
| Citizens | Cyna Woodard (ASU student), Maureen Linneman (Asheville) | |
| Clean Water for North Carolina | Hope Taylor (Executive Director), Ericka Faircloth (Justice Organizer, Lumbee Tribe member) | |
| Blue Ridge Envtl. Defense League | Therese Vick (Organizer) | Concern that SCANA-Dominion merger opens the door to ACP expansion to SC. Says expansion undermines ACP arguments about need to meet NC demand, will limit already questionable economic benefits to NC, and will increase adverse environmental impacts on NC. |
| NC Envtl. Justice Network | Naeema Muhammed (Organizing Director) | |
| Concerned Citizens of Northampton County | Belinda Joyner (President) | |
| Rachel Carson Council | Bob Musil (President & CEO) | |
| Frack-free NC Alliance + 19 organizations | Hope Taylor + 19 organizations: EnvironmentalEE, 350 Triangle (Karen Bearden), No Fracking in Stokes, Appalachian Voices, River Guardian Foundation, Coastal Carolina River Watch, Nash County Stop the Pipeline (Marvin Winstead, Joe Poland), ... | con't ... Haw River Assembly, Medical Advocates for Healthy Air, Save our Sandhills, Down East Coalition, No Pipeline Johnston County, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Pee Dee Water, Air, Land and Lives |
| Chatham Research Group | Martha Girolami | |
| Citizen | Constance Ambler | North Carolina undergraduate at Sewanee mailed a 2-page, typed letter arguing the potential degradation of NC's ecology (air, water, soil) doesn't outweigh putative economic benefits of and need for the ACP. |
| Center for Community Action | Donna Chavis | Lumbee Indian. Shared 18-page report by a panel of Lumbee Indians that recommends actions for a "Culturally Relevant Assessment of the ACP." Concern with ACP impacts on indigenous populations as well as acts of intimidation by ACP, LLC. |
| N.C. State Department of Forestry and Environmental Resources | Ryan E. Emanuel, Ph.D | NSCU professor in Dept of Forestry and Environmental Resources; Lumbee Indian. Concern, among other things, that FERC and NC have not fully recognized the ACP's disproportionate impacts on native populations. This is important because that recognition can help indigenous populations negotiate mitigation measures if ACP proceeds. |
